

The Head Teacher's Fortnightly Newsletter – Friday 19th October 2018

Dear Parents / Carers,

Following on from my last Head Teacher's letter, I am happy to inform you all that we have appointed a new teacher to take Year 4 when Mr Coldwell leaves at half term. Our new teacher is called Mr Lines and he has already been in school this week getting to know everyone and the school! We look forward to him joining the team. Parents of children in Year 4 can meet him next week at their child's consultation time appointment with Mr Coldwell on Wednesday 24th October.

After half term our Christmas Dates will come out to parents/carers in order to give you plenty of notice regarding some of our events. They can also be found on the academy's website and on the academy's APP. Please keep these safe when they come out as we wouldn't want anyone to miss out!

Best Wishes
Mrs D Linacre

Following our parent workshop with the NSPCC last week, here is a really helpful website and APP to download that enables you to find out a lot more information about the APPs your child is using.

If you are not happy about the way in which someone has been communicating online, please use the CEOP button and report. This can be found on some websites /

APPs or by going to: <https://www.ceop.police.uk/safety-centre/>
The CEOP button can be used to report by both adults and children.

Visit our website for further guidance and links to support.

KS1 children have been preparing this week for their 'Dinosaur Museum' which parents and families can visit next Wednesday morning!

Nursery have been enjoying the story of Goldilocks & the Three Bears this week, through an adventure in our woods; tasting porridge & acting the story out.
